

Groundwater Table Elevation (25-Foot Contours)

(The darker the map color, the more susceptible groundwater is to contamination)

The western part of the Town of Washburn is the source of groundwater that supplies public and private drinking water to the east and that provides cool, clean, flowing springs that feed several high-quality trout streams and coastal estuaries.

